All the "must-have" products are here! On top of dedicated photography and artistic service, post-processing and online sharing, you'll get Zorz Studios' magazine-cover retouching of one selected image, a credit for printing your favorite photos, a professional-quality photo book to show off your wedding, and electronic copies of all images so that you can email them, post them online, or load them onto your portable device.

Intermediate Package

- Engagement session or bridal session
- Thank-You cards
- Comprehensive full day photographic coverage by two photographers
- Secured online proofing and print ordering
- Standard post-processing of each image
- Master post-processing of 30 images
- Signature post-processing of 5 images
- $500 print credit
- Wedding album, 30 pages, flush-mount, custom
- Two parent wedding books, 30 pages, hard-cover, custom layout
- Disc with all images in web-friendly format and selected 35 images in high-resolution, JPEG format

The gem of this solid, versatile package is a separate photo session for the bride, offered before the actual wedding date and done to the highest standards and principles of Zorz Studios' signature fine art portraiture work. An engagement session may be substituted. On your wedding day, not one, but two photographers will be working for you, covering more locations and angles! In addition to receiving a greater number of signature images and a larger credit for prints, you'll get a beautiful, custom, coffee-table wedding album and two book copies to share with your parents or friends. The selected images are supplied in the high resolution electronic format, allowing you to reprint and enlarge them as you desire.

This package offers the most in product assortment and more than $3,000 in savings, along with a generous print credit. It includes not only the pre-wedding bridal session, conducted to the highest standards and principles of Zorz Studios' signature fine art portraiture work, but also the pre-wedding engagement session and a guest book designed from its shots. Greet your wedding guests in style and let them enjoy these special images while signing your book! Save-the-Date cards will sport your professional and full-of-life portrait taken during the engagement session, while Thank-You cards will bring your favorite wedding image to your guests! On your wedding day, not one, but two photographers will be working for you, covering more locations and angles! Not only will you get Zorz Studios' signature magazine-cover retouching on enough photos to compile an entire magazine (okay, album), but also true artistic conversions from photographs to editorial-like illustrations. This is not your typical photographer's service, but to make it even more special, you'll get two additional copies of your primary album, of the same quality, to make your parents proud. Find room on your wall to hang a masterfully crafted gallery wrap with your favorite photo mounted on canvas. Load a professionally produced disc into your DVD player or computer, sit back, and enjoy a high-resolution movie made from your selected images and accompanied by the enchanting (or wild) song of your choice. And, to add to the tremendous value of this package, you'll receive a DVD containing every standard, retouched, and artistically processed image with reprinting rights. Own and enjoy it all.
